

After-School
Good News Club®

What are the after-school Good News Clubs®?

Bible classes children may attend once a week after school hours on the school campus. They are open to all boys and girls between the ages of five and twelve. You are welcome to attend with your child. They are sponsored by Child Evangelism Fellowship® Inc. (CEF) an international organization in existence for over 67 years in more than 150 countries. Children world-wide are enrolled in Good News Club programs.

What is taught in after-school Good News Clubs®?

Each week CEF trained teachers present an exciting Bible lesson using colorful materials from CEF Press®. This fun-filled time with the children includes a snack, songs, memory work, inspiring stories, and review games. Other creative learning activities, focused on the lesson's theme, are incorporated as well as each child receives devotional materials.
